

Still trying to decide on a career path?

Does a career in helping acquire the land needed to build these projects interest you?

Do you know how many professions it takes to build a road, or a bridge, or a utility corridor?

Did you know that the land needed for these projects is called Right of Way?

Visit the International Right of Way Association Indiana Chapter 10 website to learn more about these career options:

www.IRWChapter10.org